A stunning French 18th century Regence period double framed giltwood mirror. The central original mirror plate is framed within a finely carved giltwood band with an interlocking design. The original outer mirror plates are also framed within the same elegant design and display beautiful pierced giltwood central reserves and striking scrolled floral movements at each corner. The impressive mirrored top crown also retains its original mirror plate and displays exceptional finely carved scrolled foliate movements amidst lovely flowers. At each side are crossed quivers and eternal flames with elegant seashell reserves and most decorative scrolled tops with finely etched patterns.
