An elegant and unique French 18th century Régence period giltwood and Brèche d'Alep marble console, circa 1720. The console is raised by beautiful square cabriole legs with exceptional hoof feet, a fine foliate accent, interlocking fish scale like designs and lovely circular reserves on a fluted background with superb foliate designs at each corner with a charming lattice background. Each leg is connected by a delicate scalloped stretcher with a fine fluted pattern and a central octagonal reserve. The apron displays an elegant arched shape with lovely scrolled foliate and acanthus leaf designs below interlocking bands with charming rosettes all set on an exquisite lattice etched background. Above is the original Brèche d'Alep marble top with a fine mottled border. All original gilt throughout.
