An impressive and most decorative French 18th century Regence Period Giltwood mirror. This elegant rectangular double framed mirror contains all of its original mirror plates throughout. Each beveled mirror plate is framed within fine mottled bands with charming richly carved foliate designs.

Pierced and richly carved foliate elements with palmettes and busts adorn each corner of the lower frame. Above is the striking pierced scrolling foliate top crown displaying two winged cherubs flanking a draped canopy with an acanthus leaf spray atop.
