An attractive and most elegant French 18th century Régence Period Giltwood mirror. This stunning and large scale double framed mirror is supported on two scrolling foliate carved feet and set within a rectangular inner frame displaying reeded patterns. The outer frame showcases wonderfully carved pierced scrolling foliate designs leading to the top crown. The exquisite pierced top crown displays amazing attention to detail and is flanked on both sides and above by handsome phoenixes. All original gilding and mirror plates throughout.
