A handsome and most elegant French 18th century Régence period Walnut and Coquillier de Bilbao Marble center table. The Table à Gibier is raised by impressive cabriole legs with fine hoof feet and adorned with richly carved acanthus leaves and beautiful scrolled foliate designs with lovely corner cabochon carvings. Each leg is connected by an exceptional scrolled stretcher with most decorative mottled borders and carved fillets with a charming and intricately detailed floral central reserve. The exquisite arbalest shaped apron displays additional wonderfully executed foliate movements centering a superb reserve also repeated at the back with similar designs at each side. Above is the original Coquillier De Bilbao Marble which repeats the beautiful shape of the table and displays a fine mottled border.

All original rich patina throughout.
