An impressive and most handsome French 19th century 1st Empire period flamed Mahogany, ormolu, and fossilized marble center table. The circular table is raised by three mottled ormolu bun feet with their original concealed casters below a most decorative triangular bottom tier with concave sides. At the center are striking columns with superb ormolu plinths and capitals with exceptional and very unique richly chased etched honeycomb and rosette designs which also extend along the ormolu band at the beautiful flamed Mahogany frieze. Above is the original black fossilized marble top with a beautiful raised border. All original gilt throughout.
