A stunning French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period Baccarat crystal and ormolu centerpiece. The centerpiece is raised by beautiful pierced foliate patterns with elegant grape clusters and branches. At the center is a charming cherub sitting on a ground like design while draped in a fine flowing fabric. He has a basket of flowers and a bowl of fruit to his left while holding up a detailed love bird while centered by striking richly chased vines leading up each side. The vines are adorned with intricately detailed grape leaves and grape clusters. Above is the original Baccarat crystal dish with a floral scalloped border and a striking ormolu water flora support encasing the most impressive Baccarat crystal flute. All original gilt throughout.
