An impressive and unique French 19th century Charles X period flamed mahogany, tulipwood, and white Carrara marble console. The freestanding console is raised by elegant square tapered feet with a fine mottled border below the bottom tier decorated with exquisite tulipwood fillets at the front. At the center are four striking and most decorative supports with a beautiful carved designs and unique shapes while the back displays two column like supports with mottled top and bottom caps. The apron displays a stepped design and is also decorated with exceptional tulipwood fillets which extend along each side. Above is the original white Carrara marble top.
