A striking and unique French 19th century Charles X st. ormolu and patinated bronze eight arm chandelier. At the bottom is centered by a richly chased foliate inverted finial with fine etched design below the intricately pierced patinated bronze base. The ormolu band displays and oval and foliate pattern with a fine hammered design from where each of the elegantly scrolled arms branch off. Each arm is decorated with a wonderfully executed floral candle cup. Above are eight reeded patinated bronze stretchers with foliate ormolu connectors. At the impressive top crown is a pierced ormolu foliate design and inverted finial. All original gilt throughout.
