An exceptional and most decorative French 19th century Charles X st. Walnut, Maplewood and Gris St. Anne marble center table. The circular table is raised by fine bun feet below the triangular tier with concave sides, rounded corners and a superb central sunburst veneered design showcasing the superb Walnut wood grain. Three elegantly curved legs lead upwards with handsome richly carved paw feet and decorative mottled elements. Above each leg are beautiful finely inlaid Maplewood blooming flowers set on the warm wrap around Walnut apron decorated with exceptional intricately detailed Maplewood foliate designs and a fine wrap around mottled band. Above is the remarkable original Gris St. Anne marble top.
