An elegant French 19th century Louis XV st. tulipwood, ormlu and Brèche de Galifet marble center table. The circular table is raised by beautiful cabriole shaped legs with pierced finely detailed foliate sabots and charming fillets leading up to richly chased maidens amidst striking foliate designs. The scalloped shaped apron displays a most decorative pierced foliate ormlu reserve set on an exceptional veneered tulipwood background. Above is the original Brèche de Galifet marble top with a fine mottled border.
