An elegant and high quality French 19th century Directoire st. Ormolu and Portoro marble Guéridon side table. The circular table is raised by three finely curved legs with handsome hoof feet with beautiful acanthus leaves connected by a circular bottom stretcher. At the center is a circular tier retaining its original Portoro marble top fitted within a mottled reeded ormolu band. Above each leg are striking richly chased rams heads with most decorative hanging hoops all below the handsome original fitted circular Portoro marble top surrounded by a Ormolu band with Vitruvian scrolls.
