An elegant and most decorative French 19th century Directorate st. patinated Bronze and Ormolu chandelier. This beautiful six arm chandelier is centered by an Ormolu acorn bottom finial below a pierced Ormolu palmette reserve. The curved patinated Bronze body has six curved sides with the six arms at each peak. Each electrified Ormolu arm is decorated by scrolling foliate designs and a bearded male profile below the circular candle cups with mottled and beaded edges. Extending upwards to the top crown are three pierced Ormolu chains which attach to a foliate decorated mounting frame below a patinated Bronze circular top cap with a palmette designed spray.
