An exceptional and most elegant French 19th century double framed giltwood mirror. The oval mirror retains all of its original mirror plates throughout. The central mirror plate is set within a lovely finely detailed foliate and beaded border while the outer plates are separated by fine smooth foliate cabochon reserves and framed within a most decorative overlapping spiraled design. The base displays a charming and finely detailed foliate reserve while the top crown displays a stunning richly carved laurel wreath with a quiver, the eternal flame, and berried laurel branches.
