A handsome and most impressive French 19th century Empire st. Mahogany and ormolu center/library table. The large scale circular table is raised by three most exceptional scrolled tapered legs with striking ormolu paw feet and adorned with pierced foliate mounts and striking rosettes. The legs are connected by a bottom tier showcasing the beautiful Mahogany grain framed within a mottled and fluted ormolu gallery. Above each leg are superb pierced ormolu palmettes centering additional pierced foliate mounts and richly chased rosettes at the apron above a mottled wrap around band. Above is the original fitted green leather top with beautiful scrolled foliate gold tooled designs framed within a Mahogany border.
