An impressive and unique French 19th century Empire st. mahogany and ormolu mirror. The mirror is raised by a straight base with a fine mottled design. The original central mirror plate displays an elegant arched shape design framed by striking most decorative ormolu stars. At each side are column like supports with richly chased palmettes and handsome lion heads set on the stunning mahogany background. Above is a striking pierced central ormolu mount with an elegant foliate design framed within an inlaid fillet and set below a superb palmette designed top band.
