A most impressive and high quality French 19th century Empire st. Mahogany and Ormolu settee. The settee is raised on Ormolu supports of Hercules wearing his lion skin cape at the top and ending with handsome lion paws over the original casters. The large front apron is decorated by richly chased Ormolu mounts of rosettes amidst foliate sprays. The mahogany armrests are decorated by Ormolu palmettes and with top rosettes. Above is the upholstered back flanked by circular columns with an attractive Ormolu capitals below Mahogany globes with Ormolu stars. The settee is finished on the back and can be placed in the center of any room.
