A beautiful French 19th century Empire st. mahogany, ormolu and white Carrara marble circular coffee table. The table is raised by bun feet below a fine X stretcher centered by a most decorative ormolu star. The four elegantly scrolled legs display richly chased handsome paw feet and pierced ormolu top mounts with fine scrolled and foliate designs. The frieze displays intricately detailed pierced ormolu mount with foliate movements centered by a charming rosette. The original white Carrara marble top is fitted within an elegant ormolu gallery.
