An impressive French 19th century Empire st. Mouchette Mahogany, Ebony and Ormolu vitrine cabinet. The large scale cabinet is raised on wonderful Mahogany ball supports below the straight apron and striking berried laurel band. The center of the cabinet displays two wide Mahogany doors decorated with its original pierced lattice screens, crest shaped Ormolu keyhole escutcheons, and three adjustable interior shelves. Flanking the doors are two outer enclosed cabinets showcasing the stunning Mouchette Mahogany wood grain, with top richly chased circular Ormolu laurel wreaths accented with outer rosettes. Also decorating the top of the doors are handsome inlaid Greek Key designed bands and the doors open to reveal two additional adjustable shelves on each side. Above the doors are additional laurel bands flanked by rosettes below the straight top crown accented by two handsome and richly chased lion heads. Wonderfully proportioned.
