A beautiful and very high quality French 19th century Empire st. ormolu and Baccarat crystal chandelier. The twelve arm sixteen light chandelier is centered by a striking solid crystal ball below the lovely mottled foliate ormolu support with three beautiful tiers of most decorative prism and baguette shaped crystal pendants. The central tier displays a wonderful pierced richly chased wrap around band displaying masks with quivers and the eternal flame, and striking swans flanked by cornucopias. The elegantly scrolled arms branch out from a fine palmette designed mottled band and display elegant scrolled foliate accents leading to a unique fish scale like design at the underside of the bobeches and striking faceted crystal saucers.

At the center are four additional light bulbs illuminating the interior and emitting a wonderful warm glow. Lightly curved swaging cut faceted crystal garlands lead upwards to the elegant top crown with superb pierced ormolu palmettes and additional most decorative baguette shaped cut crystal pendants.
