A striking French 19th century Empire st. ormolu and solid mahogany side chair. The chair is raised by handsome ormolu paw feet and square tapered legs. Each leg is accented with decorative recessed panels with intricately chased fitted pierced ormolu mounts of palmettes and beautiful foliate designs. Above each leg are fine fitted block rosettes centering foliate and palmette ormolu mounts which extend along the front and sides. The upholstered back support displays additional striking and richly chased foliate mounts and elegant scrolled designs and detailed palmettes and rosettes at the top crown.
