A beautiful and high quality French 19th century Empire st. Ormolu, Mahogany, and gray marble console. The console with original mirror plates is raised by two front Ormolu foliate ball feet and two straight Mahogany feet in the back. The lower Mahogany tier has a recessed center and is edged with an Ormolu foliate vine. On top of the lower tier are two Ormolu female Caryatids wearing flowing garments with their arms crossed. Behind the Caryatids are two straight Mahogany panels which serve as console supports as well as frame the beautiful original mirror plate, and gray marble top above.
