A striking French 19th century Empire st. patinated bronze and ormolu vanity mirror. The mirror is raised by a fine circular mottled ormolu base with elegant Coeur-de-Rai and interlocking wrap around bands. At the center is an impressive patinated bronze maiden dressed in wonderfully executed period attire with an ormolu floral wreath in her hair. Her arms are extended above her head seemingly holding the circular mirror above. The circular mirror above can be adjusted and also displays an additional mirror plate at the back.
