An exquisite and extremely decorative French 19th century Empire st. patinated bronze, ormolu and crystal chandelier. The six arm twenty two light chandelier is centered by an elegant bottom acorn ormolu finial below a fine

Les Oves design from where beautiful tapered swaging beaded crystal garlands lead upwards. At the center is a striking wrap around patinated bronze band with exceptional richly chased ormolu palmettes and beautiful pierced scrolled foliate designs from where the wonderfully scrolled Rinceau shaped arms branch out leading to impressive frosted glass flames housing light bulbs. Additional lightly curved swaging tapered crystal beaded garlands with remarkable and extremely decorative prism cut crystal pendants lead up to the dome shaped top crown with pierced palmettes all below the original fluted circular support and foliate canopy.
