A charming and fine French 19th century Empire st. patinated bronze 'pot pourri' with all original patina. Raised by a triangular moulded shaped 'rouge griotte' marble support with concave sides. The base is surrounded by an exquisite water leaf frieze and centered by a flowerhead. Above are 3 slightly curved supports with attractive winged maiden figures. The gadroon shaped urn has a fanciful finial at the bottom and a large laurel leaf designed border surrounding the top rim.
