A handsome French 19th century Empire st. Vert Patricia marble and ormolu clock. The clock is raised by fine rectangular ormolu supports below the Vert de Patricia marble base. A striking and richly chased mottled ormolu band extends along the front and sides and displays decorative Les Oves and arched patterns. The elegant clock face displays a beautiful and most simplistic design with arrow shaped ormolu hands and XII, III, VI and IX Roman numerals. The impressive ormolu top crown above displays additional arched designs and a fine egg and dart band below striking richly chased palmettes in a lovely satin and burnished finish. All original gilt throughout.
