A most attractive Italian 19th century Baroque st. patinated and giltwood mirror. The original mirror plate is set within a beautiful richly carved giltwood frame with stunning pierced scrolled foliate movements, finely detailed swaging floral garlands, and a charming scalloped shaped tied fluted band at the border. The impressive top crown displays additional beautiful scrolled foliate movements and charming flowers centered by a unique and most decorative cabochon reserve. All set on its original patinated olive green rectangular frame. All original gilt throughout.
