A stunning and large scale French 19th century Louis XIV st. giltwood and Grand Antique marble freestanding console. The console is raised by fine square foliate feet below block reserves, joined by a striking X shape stretcher. The stretcher displays a square and foliate scrolled design with a beautiful and finely carved central foliate finial. The most impressive square tapered legs are decorated with scrolled foliate movements set on a striking lattice pattern. The powerful apron is centered by an outstanding and richly carved female face, with a seashell in her hair set, in a rich satin and burnished finish. Intricate scrolled and foliate movements lead outwards to elegant block rosettes. Each side is decorated by a central seashell reserve with additional scrolled foliate movements. Above is the original Grand Antique marble top with protruding corners and a fine mottled border. All original gilt throughout.
