A stunning and extremely decorative French 19th century Louis XIV st. Kingwood, burl Walnut, ormolu, and Brèche marble side table. The table is raised by impressive square tapered legs with beautiful mottled feet, striking wrap around foliate ormolu mounts, and decorated with wonderful burl Walnut inlays and lovely floral marquetry with exceptional most unique ormolu top caps. Above each leg is a pierced interlocking geometric ormolu mount flanking the straight apron which displays a stunning pierced ormolu design with intricately detailed alternating foliate movements. Above is the beautiful original Brèche marble top with cut corners fitted within a richly chased mottled wrap around ormolu band with finely detailed seashells and foliate designs.
