Top Diameter: 32"
