An impressive and most decorative French 19th century Louis XIV st. ormolu chandelier. The twelve arm chandelier is centered by an elegant bottom mottled finial below finely detailed foliate designs centered by lovely acorn finials. The twelve arms are staggered over three tiers and are each adorned with large richly chased acanthus leaves leading to foliate candlecups and octagonal bobeches. Richly chased masks of beautiful female maidens center the elegantly scrolled mottled cage which lead up to a superb foliate inverted mottled finial and the beautiful top reserve with Vitruvian scrolls and additional charming foliate designs.
