A handsome and high quality French 19th century Louis XIV st. ormolu chandelier. The eight arm chandelier is centered by a striking bottom inverted foliate acorn finial below reeded designs from where the arms branch out. Each elegantly scrolled arm displays impressive richly chased masks of bearded men and are adorned with large acanthus leaves leading to reeded and foliate bobeches and baluster shaped candle cups. Above a lightly curved support with finely detailed rams heads and a tied wrap around reeded band are acanthus leaves and beautifully scrolled movements with beautiful richly chased maidens and mottled top support.
