An impressive French 19th century Louis XIV st. ormolu chandelier. The eight arm chandelier is centered by a striking bottom acorn finial below lovely foliate designs, a superb reeded band, and fine curved acanthus leaves.

The scrolled arms branch out from either large scrolled acanthus leaf movements or exceptional masks of beautiful richly chased maidens with each displaying lovely scrolled foliate designs set on a most decorative hammered background leading to circular beaded bobeches and mottled baluster shaped candle cups. The impressive central fut displays a beautiful reeded urn design with four most elegant scrolled acanthus leaf maidens wearing grape leaves and grape clusters in their hair centering the lovely mottled stepped reserve and original hoop. All original gilt throughout.
