A handsome and high quality mid 19th century French Louis XIV st. ormolu clock. The clock is raised by four tapered fluted legs decorated with acanthus leaves. The scalloped shaped center frieze is with a central reserve of "S" scrolled acanthus leaves all below a sensation and large highly chased ormolu dial with enameled Roman numerals. The dial has decoration of dolphins, Fleur de Lis and a portrait of King Louis XIV. Above is a female mask all below "Father Time" sitting on a burnished sphere. The sides have a lattice design above a large shell. All original movement and gilt.
