A spectacular and monumental French 19th century Louis XV st. Baccarat crystal chandelier. This chandelier has a central crystal ball hanging from a crystal base, below six elaborately scrolled arms that end in three cut crystal candelcups each, and six single scrolled arms in between, for a total of twenty four lights. Each ormolu arm is adorned with crystal beads and hanging crystal pendants throughout, accented with crystal daggers. The very impressive crystal central fut is decorated with ormolu sprays and two stations of ormolu sprays, with daggers, crystal beads and pendants.
