An exceptional French 19th century Louis XV st. Brèche Violette marble and ormolu urn. The impressive urn/trophy is raised by a square ormolu base with concave corners and decorative recessed hammered designs. The socle shaped pedestal support displays a fine wrap around fluted foliate ormolu band and superb seashell like foliate ormolu movements with stunning scrolled handles leading up each side in a rich satin and burnished finish. The beautifully shaped Brèche Violette marble body displays a curved neck with a fine wrap around foliate band below the removable lid with a unique and extremely decorative pomegranate and floral finial.
