A magnificent French 19th century Louis XV st. giltwood mirror. The double framed mirror retains all of its original mirror plates throughout. The central mirror plates are framed within fine wrap around beaded bands while the outer border displays a beautiful spiraled ribbon and foliate wrap around band. At each corner are lovely reserves with blooming flowers and elegantly curved acanthus leaf feet at the base. The exceptional arched top crown displays a stunning central Fleur de Lys reserve flanked by scrolled elements and charming finely carved floral garlands. All original gilt throughout.
