A striking and high quality French 19th century Louis XV st. double framed oval giltwood mirror. The original central beveled mirror plate is framed within a fine beaded band. The four original outer mirror plates are separated by lovely pierced smooth cabochons and are framed within an impressive twisted designed border. At the base is a richly carved inverted fleur de lys centered by charming floral garlands. The top crown displays a most impressive and richly carved central pierced seashell reserve framed within beautiful scrolled foliate movements and flanked by intricately detailed floral garlands. All original gilt throughout.
