An exceptional and most elegant French 19th century Louis XV st. giltwood and white Carrara marble console. The wall mounted console is raised by lovely scrolled legs with mottled designs, fine topie shaped feet with large richly carved acanthus leaves, and charming intricately detailed flowers at each corner. Each leg is connected by an impressive and most decorative stretcher with scrolled supports centering a striking urn with lovely foliate carvings and a delicate top finial. The scalloped shaped apron displays a beautiful central leaf flanked by flowers set on a superb hammered background. Above is the original white Carrara marble top with a fine double mottled border.
