A stunning French 19th century Louis XV st. giltwood high back settee. The settee is raised by elegant and richly carved cabriole legs with a beautiful lattice background, large acanthus leaves and rosettes. The frieze is decorated by a central shell flanked by the same lattice background. The scrolled arms are decorated with carved flowers. The wide and tall back has a central richly carved shell amidst acanthus leaves. All in a burnished and satin finish with all original gilt.
