An exquisite French 19th century Louis XV st. Kingwood, Tulipwood and ormolu cave a liqueur with its original etched crystal decanters and glasses. The cave a liqueur is raised by elegant scrolled wave like ormolu feet below the most decorative scalloped and bombe shaped frieze. The frieze displays two fine beaded wrap around fillets and beautiful floral marquetry. The body repeats the same wonderful movements and is decorated with additional finely executed floral and foliate marquetry. The top lifts up and locks in place while the front folds in to showcase the lovely front and foliate ormolu keyhole escutcheon. Inside is the original and complete set of thirteen cordial glasses and four decanters each displaying finely detailed luxuriant etched foliate designs and fitted within richly chased foliate ormolu supports.
