A lovely and most elegant French 19th century Louis XV st. Kingwood, Tulipwood, ormolu, and Gris des Ardennes marble cabinet. The two door cabinet is raised by cabriole legs with beautiful fitted pierced foliate ormolu feet below the fine arbalest shaped apron which is centered by a richly chased foliate ormolu mount. The two doors each display a beautiful wonderfully executed sunburst veneered design tapering upwards, framed within a lovely scallop shaped border and adorned with foliate ormolu keyhole escutcheons. The doors open to reveal all original hardware and three vertical storage compartments to the left and three horizontal ones to the right. Each corner displays superb pierced foliate ormolu mounts with large richly chased acanthus leaves and seashells with intricate details in a striking satin and burnished finish. The sides are decorated with beautiful quarter veneered panels showcasing the exquisite wood grain framed within a fine inlaid wrap around straight fillet. Above is the original Gris des Ardennes marble top with a fine mottled border. All original gilt throughout.
