A beautiful French 19th century Louis XV st. kingwood, tulipwood, ormolu and marble two drawer commode. The chest is raised by elegant lightly curved legs with foliate ormolu sabots and a fine ormolu chute leading up to richly chased pierced foliate corner mounts. At the center are two drawers sans traverse (without crossbar) decorated with striking and wonderfully executed floral marquetry. Each drawer displays lovely foliate pulls with an exceptional satin and burnished finish. The top drawer displays a fine pierced foliate ormolu keyhole escutcheon locking both drawers. Each side displays additional finely inlaid floral designs. Above is the original Brocatelle marble top with rounded corners and a striking double mottled border.
