A wonderful and most elegant French 19th century Louis XV st. Mahogany and Ormolu serving table. The two tier table is raised on tapered cabriole legs with Ormolu sabots and top foliate mounts flanking the apron. The arbalest shaped apron showcases a charming central palmette reserve flanked by scrolled foliate movements below the mottled Ormolu gallery. Above is a lattice designed parquetry top below the display tier raised on charming Ormolu cherub feet and displaying the same lattice designed parquetry and finished with a mottled Ormolu gallery. All original patina and gilt throughout.
