A stunning and extremely high quality large scale French 19th century Louis XV st. ormolu and Baccarat crystal chandelier. The twenty eight arm chandelier is centered by a striking hand blown crystal ball below an exquisite array of magnificent cut crystal pendants with lovely scalloped shapes. The arms are separated into groups of seven over two tiers with each arm displaying a most elegant scrolled design and adorned with additional beautiful and extremely decorative cut crystal pendants leading to charming floral bobeches and mottled candle cups. The arms are separated by the beautiful curvaceous cage decorated with exquisite tapered and topie shaped Baccarat crystal daggers centering the spectacular central fut encased with an extraordinary array of cut, reeded, mottled and foliate Baccarat crystal housings. Above is a lovely top spray and the majestic top crown adorned with additional beautiful cut crystal pendants and fine rosettes. All original gilt throughout.
