An elegant French 19th century Louis XV st. ormolu and hand blown glass lantern. The lantern is centered by a central hanging electrified ormolu pendant with five candles above candle cups and saucers. At the mottled bottom border are foliate central scrolled acanthus leaves. At each vertical mottled band are bottom 'S' scrolled mounts with foliate patterns. The lantern retains all of its original hand blown glass panes, one of which opens as a door. Each beautifully 'S' scrolled top design is centered by a richly chased foliate reserve in a striking satin and burnished finish. Above, five scrolled supports leading up to the most decorative top crown.
