A beautiful French 19th century Louis XV st. ormolu and hand blown glass lantern, stamped "PP". The five light lantern displays a striking and most unique scalloped shape with elegant bottom foliate and scrolled finials. Each side displays the original most decorative curved hand blown glass fitted within fine mottled ormolu frames with a door at the front which opens using a key. Above are additional beautiful scalloped shaped movements with finely detailed fluted designs and elegant foliate movements leading up to the attractive top crown.
