An elegant French 19th century Louis XV st. ormolu and Sèvres porcelain centerpiece. The centerpiece is raised on an exquisite pierced scrolled ormolu base with foliate movements and draped garlands, in a satin and burnished finish. Ormolu foliate movements lead up to fine and richly chased scrolled handles with winged cherubs. At the center is the striking Sèvres porcelain bowl displaying lovely and colorful foliate designs on one side and a pair of cherubs on the other, all framed within a foliate ormolu border.
