A high quality and most elegant French 19th century Louis XV st. Ormolu and Tortoiseshell box. This truly stunning rectangular box is raised on four scrolling Ormolu acanthus leaf legs which lead to the foliate mounts above. Above the curved front apron, with its scrolling foliate Ormolu mounts, is the finely detailed pierced foliate decorated keyhole escutcheon and the original key. Both sides of this wonderful box are left without reserves to display the wonderful finish of the Tortoiseshell. The top edge is decorated with and Ormolu egg and dart pattern with scrolling acanthus leaves on each corner. The top opens to reveal an attractive upholstered interior that is tastefully designed with colorful flowers throughout.
