A beautiful French 19th century Louis XV st. ormolu chandelier. The six arm chandelier is centered by an elegant richly chased foliate bottom finial and lovely fitted scrolled crests with a lattice pattern. Each of the six arms displays a stunning and most unique scrolled design with foliate finials and beautiful finely detailed floral candle cups. The superb cage displays three finely curved movements centering a spiral central support adorned with three eternal flames. Above is the pierced foliate canopy with striking lattice patterns.
